Fungicidal active compound combinations

Abstract

What is described is a novel active compound combination which comprises, on the one hand, two known oxime ether derivatives and, on the other hand, a known hydroxyethyltriazole derivative and which is highly suitable for controlling phytopathogenic fungi.